

PRESS RELEASE

Alive Publishing is delighted to inform you of a new title, published posthumously, called Growing in Faith, A Panoramic View of Salvation History by Mgr Paul Watson, former Director of the Maryvale Institute, Birmingham.

Growing in Faith is a panoramic, bird's eye view of salvation history, rooted in the Scriptures and the teaching of the Church and drawing on Paul Watson's long and rich experience as a parish priest and educator. Growing in Faith is a must read for anyone eager to deepen their faith.

Written in the final months of his life as he wrestled with terminal illness, Paul found hope writing it; you will find inspiration reading it.

'Many of us who knew Monsignor Paul as a priest of the Archdiocese of Birmingham and a former director of the Maryvale Institute, appreciate that his ministry as a priest and scholar were marked by a deep love for and understanding of the Scriptures. His lifelong reflection on the Scriptures enabled Monsignor Paul to interpret afresh the treasures of God's word. His gifts as both a pastor and teacher also enabled a much wider audience to appreciate and benefit from his many insights, which in turn allowed them to grow in understanding of the Scriptures through a real encounter with the Word made flesh.'

✠ Bernard Longley - Archbishop of Birmingham

'Family and friends, parishioners, engaged couples preparing for marriage, professional men and women, and many priests in Birmingham and elsewhere, we can all testify to Paul's gifts as an evangelist and a catechist.'

✠ David Oakley - Bishop of Northampton
