ST.ERCONWALD: 13TH MAY

St Erconwald was born in Lincolnshire a member of the Benedictines. In 675 AD he became the Bishop of London. He is credited with being an influential adviser on law-making and charters, for the King of Wessex. He died in 693 and was buried in the churchyard of St Paul's Cathedral. He is the patron saint of London and the secondary co-patron of our Diocese of Brentwood. He is often depicted in art as a bishop in a small chariot, which he used for travelling around his diocese.

"Easter is the passage from desolation to the joy of communion with Jesus!"

- Pope Francis, Easter 2023
