St. Bonaventure (1221-1274) was born as Giovanni di Fidanza and became the seventh Minister General of the Franciscans, who gave him the name Bonaventura, meaning "good fortune." He was a scholar of the University of Paris, and is regarded as one of the greatest philosophers of the Middle Ages. Canonised in 1484, he was declared to be one of the Doctors of the Church in 1587 by the Franciscan pope Sixtus V.
